Dear FDIC Board Members,

I urge you to attend the Bank of Wal-Mart hearing. Having local banks is a place where you can discuss your finances with someone who knows you, where you live, and what problems you might face in the future. Bank of Wal-Mart would undermine local communities, and might even make it difficult for local business to secure loans.

Wal-Mart has enough! Actually, I think they have too much. I used to enjoy purchasing Rubber Maid Products, but because Wal-Mart put such pressure on the company, they were forced out of business.

Please, I repeat, please don't allow this.

Cordially,

Mrs. Jeudi Curtis
